SUMMARY

Under general direction, performs a variety of technical and complex administrative support duties for an administrator. Coordinates and performs administrative projects within a division. Position is distinguished from that of Administrative Assistant by the degree of accountability of the work, and greater latitude in exercise of independent judgment concerning assigned duties. Coordinates work flow and support activities for the office and often for programs involving multiple organization units and grants.

DISTINGUISHING CAREER FEATURES

The Senior Administrative Assistant is part of a multi-level career path encompassing administrative and secretarial support. The Administrative Secretaries I and II focus on applying advanced secretarial skills for a function that is usually a single area of focus. Advancement to Administrative Assistant requires at least two years as an Administrative Secretary within the District (or equivalent) and a demonstrated ability to serve higher level administrators and a function that requires integrating the services of multiple sub-functions. Administrative Assistants typically report to a department head having district-wide scope of responsibility. Senior Administrative Assistants typically report to an Assistant Superintendent or equivalent in scope of authority.
